Definition Essay: Democracy

Read the following quotations:

“There are two things which a democratic people will always find very difficult – to begin a war and to end it.”
Alexis de Tocqueville (French Historian and Political Scientist, 1805-1859)

“Democracy... while it lasts is more bloody than either [aristocracy or monarchy]. Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There is never a democracy that did not commit suicide.”
John Adams (Second President of the United States)

“As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master. This expresses my idea of democracy.”
Abraham Lincoln (Sixteenth President of the United States)

“Democracy is a device that ensures we shall be governed no better than we deserve.”
George Bernard Shaw (Irish Playwright and Essayist, 1856-1950)

Write an essay in which you define the word Democracy.

• Basic Requirements:
  o Introduction paragraph with thesis statement (HINT: This thesis statement will propose your definition of the word Democracy.)
  o 2-3 body paragraphs that correlate with your thesis statement and support your definition
  o A concluding paragraph that reminds me of your key points and effectively argues your definition

• As you write your essay, you must:
  o Focus on defining the concept of Democracy.
  o Effectively organize your ideas using the provided graphic organizer. (A five-paragraph essay is not necessary; however, you do need a definite introduction, body and conclusion.)
  o Include supporting evidence from our studies of Colonial America and the American Revolution. (This requirement is mandatory and must be fulfilled to earn an A.)
  o Include ideas from any of the following sources:
    ▪ The dictionary and or personal definition
    ▪ Synonyms and antonyms (compare/contrast)
    ▪ An anecdote
    ▪ Any ideas stimulated by the above quotations
    ▪ Other historical evidence ▪ Evidence from relevant literary works (Golding’s Lord of the Flies or Orwell’s Animal Farm, for example)
  o Include ample and appropriate details.
  o Edit your essay for standard grammar and language usage.
